COLONEL FAWCETT

The Colonel has been serving the good people of Camden for over 175 years. The building's seen a lot. Most of it unrepeatabe.

The Colonel himself met his end right here in 1843, shot in a duel by his own brother-in-law. Whether he ever truly left is another matter. Some say he hasn't.

We hope your visit is a little less eventful than his.

Head to thecolonelfawcett.co.uk for upcoming events, bookings and everything else worth knowing.

And if you're not done yet, our sister pub is just down the road on Warren Street. Cold beer, proper rum, great pizza.
